Electrical Storm Hits Hard in Madison

Louis Baer Chimney Struck By Lightning; Winds Top 64 MPH

The electrical storm which lashed the Quad-City area late yesterday afternoon concentrated damage particularly in Madison and the adjoining Cloverleaf Addition.

A bolt of lightning split the chimney of the Louis Baer school, and strong winds blew down a large tent, roofs off houses, uprooted trees and disrupted power service.

Broken bricks and rubble were strewn on the school roof and yard, located at McCambridge avenue and Rhodes street in Madison. Workmen were removing the remains of the chimney today. Windows in the school were broken.

Children Under Tent Unhurt
About 50 children and adults had taken shelter under a large tent which was erected on the Third street lot in preparation for Madison's Fourth of July celebration which opens tomorrow. A new tent is being brought in.

None was hurt. They had been playing or watching baseball games. Two umpires stood up part of the tent for the children until the rain slackened.

Strong winds clocked at 64 miles per hour, with gusts higher than that at the Chain of Rocks canal locks, blew off a section of the roof of the home of Jewel A. Gray, 2023 (near) Collinsville avenue, Madison.

The roof of a carport at the home of Frank Johnson on Hillside street in Cloverleaf was blown across the alley and into a window of another home.

Ball Bar Blown Over
A large tree fell on the roof of the home of Louis Link, 1724 Second street, Madison, breaking rear windows. A broken tree was blown over in the rail yards near Cloverleaf Addition.

Other large trees uprooted, including a big Chinese elm at the home of William Briles, 1812 Fourth street, and one at the home of Thomas Loftis, 2002 Hillside street in Cloverleaf.

Limb were blown off of trees throughout the community, and electrical service was disrupted in scattered areas, especially in Madison.

Power Failures
The Madison school board, which had called a special meeting to provide for repairs to the Louis Baer chimney, met today at the city hall as the school district office was without electricity.

A large limb was blown onto the street at 2807 Marshall avenue, and hot wires were reported at 12th and Madison streets. Illinois Power Co. crews were on the job for repairs. A hole was reported in the street at 8 p.m. at West 22nd street and Rock road and the street was barricaded.

Debris was scattered throughout the community, and street department crews from Granite City, Madison and Venice were on clean-up details today.

The rainfall was measured at a half inch at the Chain of Rocks locks.

Wilson Park swimming pool was closed for 20 minutes, during the storm.

Davis To Decide On Signing Or Veto By Friday

GC Council Approves Two Resolutions 9-to-3 To Abate Pollution

Granite City council members won't know until Friday if the resolution taken Monday night to comply with a state pollution abatement order will stand.

Mayor Davis, who threatened to veto two resolutions for hiring an engineering firm and a fiscal agent for the sewer treatment plant, said Monday night he had five days to decide whether to sign or veto the resolutions.

Approval of the two resolutions on third reading was by two Granite City council members. To override a veto would require 11 votes.

Should the mayor veto the resolutions, action on the resolutions could be taken next Tuesday at the state Sanitary Water Board agenda, said Monday night.

The next regular council session is not until July 15. However, a special meeting is to be called by the mayor for next Monday (July 8), the day before the Sanitary Water Board agenda. No representative of the board was present Monday night.

Special Meeting To Be Called
The next regular council session is not until July 15. However, a special meeting is to be called by the mayor for next Monday (July 8), the day before the Sanitary Water Board agenda. No representative of the board was present Monday night.

Whether he would include the pollution abatement order in the resolutions he vetoed, was answered by Alderman Ford Johnson.

To Confer With Objectors
The mayor told the Press-Record Monday night that he plans to confer with aldermen and the city attorney before he signs the resolutions. When asked which aldermen the mayor waived his hand toward a council table at which the three aldermen who opposed the resolutions were seated, they were: Bernard Barstok, J. D. Berg and Clyde Boyd.

Absent Monday night were two aldermen, who also sit at the same table: Walter McGee and Steve Basarich — staunch objectors to the resolutions. McGee had announced two months ago he would be on vacation. He is in town, however.

The absent Monday night were Paul Rutledge, whose father died this week, and William McGee, who is vacationing in the east. McGee had agreed to return for Monday's vote if he were in town.

Voting Resolutions
The resolutions Monday night were: Paul Rutledge, whose father died this week, and William McGee, who is vacationing in the east. McGee had agreed to return for Monday's vote if he were in town.

The debate on the two resolutions lasted for an hour with nearly every one of the 12 aldermen present, speaking twice on the issue.

Walton used one of his two turns to question the mayor. He urged the mayor to make the decision that evening—to call a recess if necessary. The mayor declined, but a recess was called at 9:17 p.m. immediately after the vote on the two resolutions were completed.

The mayor said that if he vetoed the resolutions he would list the reasons.

He gave a few of them Monday night.

Mayor Gives Reasons
First he said the Special Pollution Study committee of Mayor Johnson, Johnson and McGee had overstepped its bounds in recommending not only an engineering firm but also a fiscal agent for the sewer treatment plant and the inclusion of interceptor sewers in the project.

Mayor Davis said the committee had been instructed by the council only to recommend an engineering firm.

McGee replied the committee had followed the council's given May 23 by Douglas B. Morton, sanitary engineer for the Sanitary Water Board, also recommending the employment of a fiscal agent to handle the cost of the project and a

Standards To Be Set For Future GC Drainage Jobs

A check-off list to set construction standards for future storm water drainage projects undertaken by the city was recommended to Granite City council members Monday night by G. H. Sternberg, chairman of the Street Committee.

Sternberg explained it might eliminate a condition which developed when a valve was congested extending from Vesci and Edgewood avenues to empty into the hydrant.

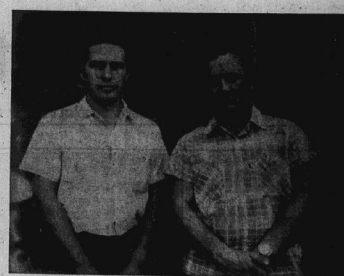

The city engineering staff was instructed to prepare the drainage check-off list.

Alderman Ford Johnson asked the committee to seek a solution to a drainage problem on Johnson road and Clark avenue, where water has been flowing into home basements.

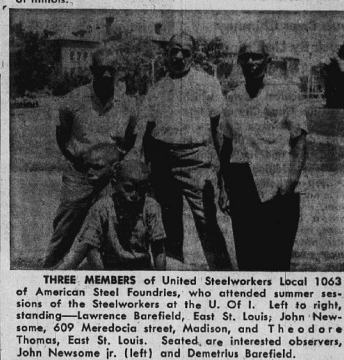

The Street committee chairman also requested a legal opinion from the city attorney on a proposal to barricade side entrances to an alley that parallels the old Illinois Terminal Railroad Co. right-of-way at Kirkpatrick Homes.

The city has received complaints that the alley is being used as a speedway, endangering youngsters that are playing along the old trolley right-of-way.

Sternberg also asked for a 10-mile-an-hour speed limit.

Chief Justice Warren Praises County Lawyers

Earl Warren, Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, commended the Madison County Bar Association, in a letter to the group Monday for its recent debate dealing with three proposed amendments to the U. S. Constitution.

Members of the association voted strongly against support of the proposed amendments after the debate, held before over 100 association members last week. The proposals, made by the Council of State Government, an amendment to make obligatory the proposal of amendments endorsed by two-thirds of the state legislatures, without action by Congress or a national convention, and further, providing for the ratification of proposed amendments by the state legislatures only.

An amendment to eliminate federal judicial authority over the apportionment of state legislatures, and an amendment to establish a "Court of the Union", composed of the chief justices of the states with authority to review Supreme Court decisions relating to the rights reserved to the states under the constitution. Warren, who was notified of the debate by Illinois Senator Paul Douglas, also opposed the proposed amendments and applauded the association for its efforts to expose the defects in such proposals, in an open debate.

Dick H. Mudge, bar association president and Madison county state's attorney, said the chief justice strongly emphasized the importance of such open debates and discussions, to protect the U. S. government from any hasty constitutional changes.

"No fundamental changes should be made in our government," Warren told the association, "until after they have been debated thoroughly in every part of the country."

Mudge added that the debate was believed to be the first session of a "great national debate" dealing with constitutional amendments, earlier recommended for the legal profession by Chief Justice Warren.

Standards To Be Set For Future GC Drainage Jobs

A check-off list to set construction standards for future storm water drainage projects undertaken by the city was recommended to Granite City council members Monday night by G. H. Sternberg, chairman of the Street Committee.

Sternberg explained it might eliminate a condition which developed when a valve was congested extending from Vesci and Edgewood avenues to empty into the hydrant.

The city engineering staff was instructed to prepare the drainage check-off list.

Alderman Ford Johnson asked the committee to seek a solution to a drainage problem on Johnson road and Clark avenue, where water has been flowing into home basements.

The Street committee chairman also requested a legal opinion from the city attorney on a proposal to barricade side entrances to an alley that parallels the old Illinois Terminal Railroad Co. right-of-way at Kirkpatrick Homes.

The city has received complaints that the alley is being used as a speedway, endangering youngsters that are playing along the old trolley right-of-way.

Sternberg also asked for a 10-mile-an-hour speed limit.

City To Install 10 More Fire Hydrants

Installation of 10 additional fire hydrants, all in the Nankmold area, was approved Monday night by Granite City council members. A resolution was adopted instructing the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. to place the hydrants.

The locations will be at Dale and St. Clair avenues; on Cardinal avenue at Terminal avenue and at National avenue; at Terminal avenue and Maryville road; in the middle of the 2700 and 2800 blocks of Willow avenue; at Edgewood drive and Willow avenue; at Edgewood drive and Lynch avenues, the middle of the 2800 block of Sunbury avenue and at Ash avenue and Glen drive.

scope for the project — including interceptor sewers to reduce the size and cost of the treatment plant.

The mayor added that he also would be guided by the advice of the city's legal department. Acting as city attorney in the absence of vacationing City Atty. George Eltiff Jr., was former city attorney John Gitchoff.

The debate started immediately after Moerlein presented the resolutions for third reading and approval.

Boyd took the floor and asked if the council would be voting on the estimated $4,000,000 program for a treatment plant and interceptor sewers or just the hiring of an engineer. The engineer resolution designating the local firm of Sheppard, Morgan & Schwaab was the first to be submitted.

Moerlein replied the engineers would prepare plans for only those phases of the recommendation designated by the council, and that if the council wanted just a treatment plant, that was all that would be done.

Atty. Gitchoff was called upon by Mayor Davis told Moerlein a different legal opinion had been given.

Gitchoff said the resolution calls for an extension of the April 7, 1960, contract with Sheppard, Morgan & Schwaab. In his opinion the contract covered the entire program of a $10,000,000 sewer separation project.

Sternberg questioned the attorney's interpretation. "I see that it means only what the committee has recommended, a treatment plant and possibly interceptor sewers."

Gitchoff replied that to enter the contract in his opinion would be to include the entire project which had been rejected by voters in last October's referendum.

All that is being asked, Mrs. Bettine commented, was for the engineer to update studies and prepare plans. "I then would like to see the council to accept or decide what is to be done."

Bergfield, reading a statement, said he would favor only construction of a treatment plant. He said he did not want to go back to the old project that had been rejected. He added that he had been a Grand Juror taxpayer for 26 years and that he would continue to be one, but that he didn't want to be a part of a multi-million dollar burden.

"I think the treatment plant should be built by experts — and that it should be built with general obligation bonds and not special bonds," Whitmer added.

Bartosiak was next to speak. He said he agreed with Atty. Gitchoff's interpretation of the 1960 engineering contract. He called for a proposal for only a treatment plant and not related interceptor sewers to separate storm water and sanitary sewage.

"Why can't Sheppard, Morgan & Schwaab come up with a new proposal?" he asked.

Moerlein replied that the extension of the contract set forth the fees, which were the minimum, and that the firm had been given the committee a letter stating it would give the city credit toward the $12,400 that had been paid for earlier pollution studies.

Moerlein added that his committee had received a better proposal from Chester Engineers of Pittsburgh than had the Pollution Emergency committee on which Bartosiak had served.

They reduced some basic fees should the project go over $2,000,000 and dropped the $25,000 added fee for preliminary studies. "You talk about saving money, the $25,000 would not have been refunded under the old committee proposal."

Mayor Davis asked if the city reject all proposals and have the committee start over. "Maybe we could get a better reduction in fees," he commented.

Whitmer said several aldermen had expressed concern over the addition of an interceptor sewer for the Namoki area and sanitary sewers for unserved areas in Granite City being paid for on a city wide basis while most residents had paid for their sewer lines. "They feel the people involved should pay for their own sewers."

Entering the discussion for the first time, Skubish suggested the council proceed with approving the committee's proposals and the decision later on what would be done. He suggested bids be sought.

"If we don't have the cooperation of the mayor, we're in trouble," Skubish added, urging the council to end the "friction on the matter."

Suggestions Not Binding
Johnson told him the engineering code of ethics did not permit bidding. "The committee's suggestion for the program to be financed with both general obligation and revenue bonds is not binding. Interceptor sewers are desirable but not compulsory," he added.

Citizens Drooped Too Soon
"I have full confidence in the committee," Partney remarked. He said the citizen's committee worked on the program for three years and that the citizens group was "dropped too early by the city. The citizen group should have held the hiring of Sheppard, Morgan & Schwaab for the original $10,000,000."

Mrs. Bettine said the new aldermen were at a disadvantage in not being familiar with the entire proceedings dating back several years and that the Pollution Emergency committee's preliminary caucus sessions with the city. She added that the committee's work was done because of a time limitation.

Bergfield told her, "New aldermen is all I hear. Some of us have been here for years."

Whitmer-Davis Exchange
Taking the floor, Whitmer began his question and answer session with Mayor Davis on the interpretation of the engineering resolution.

Davis on the mayor's interpretation of the engineering resolution. Gitchoff replied that to enter the contract in his opinion would be to include the entire project which had been rejected by voters in last October's referendum.

May Be Vetoed

Council Oks Ordinance For Personnel Committee

The amended ordinance, outlining duties of the Granite City council's Personnel committee was approved Monday night by the aldermen.

However, Mayor Davis gave no indication if he would sign it into law. He had said two weeks ago he planned to veto that ordinance because it would take away authority of the city's chief executive.

The ordinance was submitted to the council by Alderman Donald Partney, chairman of the Personnel committee, who said it was prepared from the text of the Southern Illinois University government study report.

The amendment removed the clause authorizing the committee to interview all applicants for city employment and make recommendations to the city council and department heads.

The amendment was approved at the suggestion of Alderman Joe Gabrielle Beltrac, who said that authority would give the committee too much power. She also had objected because the ordinance was not prepared by the city attorney.

Personnel Records Planned
Under the ordinance, the committee would, with the cooperation of the mayor, set up a personnel record for each city employee and would maintain the records.

The records would include the application for employment, salary, vacation and leave, training, letters of commendation or censure and sick leave.

Responsibility for overall negotiations of all wage and salary schedules or employment contracts would be given the committee. However, it is stated the committee is to work with the Finance committee and the committee responsible for the particular department involved in the negotiations.

The ordinance also specifies that the committee will in no way interfere with the duties of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners, that is responsible for the police and fire departments.

In addition the Personnel committee would prepare a "City Employees' Manual" setting forth city policies regarding employment, appointments, probationary periods, promotions, dismissals, layoffs, discipline, hours of work, pay standards for overtime, vacation, sick leave, training programs, political activities by employees, grievance procedures and other matters relating to relations between the city and employees.

Unbeaten Park, Schumacher Meet in Tourney Tonite

8th Inning, Alt-Wood Play Second Game; Champions To Be Crowned Tomorrow Night

Four teams remained in contention today after a 20-minute rainout washed out all action last night in the 15th annual Granite City park district invitational softball tournament at Wilson Park.

Tournament officials tightened up the remaining schedule of games. They still plan to crown a champion tomorrow night, provided no more rain falls.

The only unbeaten teams remaining in the tournament, the park district and St. Schumacher, are expected tonight to slick with pitching axes who have won two games each thus far in the double elimination tourney.

Charles Lowery, who hurled a no-hit game against Millie & Mickey's last Saturday and beat Blue Circle 1-0 on a two-hitter the next evening, probably will oppose the park's Howie Lamb, who has a four-hit win over Eighth Inning and a one-hitter against Alt-Wood in his career in the tournament.

DOWNSTATE FISHERMAN'S GUIDE

Crappie and bluegill in the deeper water, channel catfish where you find them and large-mouth bass when the lure also nudges a hungry customer. That's the holiday week picture of angling in the lakes and streams of southern Illinois.

Worms, both the garden and plastic varieties, are the favored lures although many bass fishermen think if they could just procure one of those imported balsa wood surface lures they would be able to score consistently.

Only three bass in the junior category were reported during the past week. Arthur Rainey of Mr. Vernon took a six pounder in Little Grassy Lake on a jill and black eel while Art Peithman of Carbondale and Arthur Talley of Carbondale, a Southern Illinois University electrician, were over the mud flats in the center of Crab Orchard Lake Saturday evening during a rare feeding period and each topped off their stringers with six pounders.

Looking back through the Downstate Fishing Guide southern of the past seven years the pattern is a familiar one. The panfish have moved to deeper, cooler water and bass are caught more by being on the lake during the infrequent feeding spells than by expert presentation of the lures.

Fishermen along the Ohio River report the river at pool stage and just right for the jugging season, a key lift down stream behind a floating array of jugs and air tight tin cans each bearing a short line, a large hook and one of numerous weed bait concoctions designed to interest a large catfish. Modern packaging of household liquids in brilliant red, blue or shiny white plastic containers has made float fishing a more colorful picture and the sight of a float can disappear in the water two feet into the air as the fish tries to shake the hook is guaranteed to increase the pulse rate. Elsewhere on the east side of the state crappie, bluegill and bass fishing in the chutes and the lower reaches of Lusk and Grand Pierre Creeks is reported fair.

Little Grassy Lake camping area was host to about 150 camping families trailers and tents during the weekend. While the bass sulked, crappie and bluegill entertained the visitors.

Harvey Brown of St. Louis put 238 crappie on ice. Bluegill refused popping bugs at the shoreline but accepted garden worms fished deep.

Devils Kitchen Lake, where a heavy growth of weeds hampers shoreline fishing, also entertained hordes of weekend campers and gave up sizeable bluegill plus several largemouth bass including an occasional 3 to 4-pounder.

Lake Murphysboro yielded two channel catfish in the 3-pound class and two bass topping four pounds but the major play was on bluegill, caught in 10 feet of water on worms or crickets.

Lake of Egypt, the power cooperative impoundment south of Marion, is attracting fishermen curious about the new lake and rewarding them with numerous bass including an occasional four pounder. Charles Breyer and Curt Malcolm, of Tinley Park, had limit strings totalling 18 pounds, most of which were caught on the Baxou Boogie lure. H. E. Garrison of Marion and Roy Oberholzer of New Athens each tallied with four pounders. Bluegill fishing remains good.

With the opening each year of newly constructed lakes to fishing, the question is often asked, "What size bass am I apt to catch?"

William Lewis, director of the Fisheries Cooperative Research Laboratory at Southern Illinois University, comes up with some cautious answers. "In the first place, you must remember that both the survival rate and the growth rate are extremely high in new lakes," he said. "It's a matter of lack of competition for available food and safety from predator fish for the fry."

"The stocking plan currently in use involves planting a limited number of adult, brood fish to provide the first spawn, and a larger number of fingerlings (fish in their first year of life)."

"The fishermen may, of course, catch one of the brood fish, which could well be a lunker. He might also catch one of the first year's spawn now a hungry little 'yearling,' which would measure 6-8 inches."

"The bassman would be most likely, in the new lakes of southern Illinois, to catch one of the initially planted fingerlings. In the case of Devils Kitchen Lake, these fish now are two years

The department asks for an order permanently restraining the firm from further minimum wage, overtime and record-keeping violations of the federal wage and hour law.

The company, located at 1428 Edwardsville road, employs about 10 workers who are engaged in the production, handling and transportation of beef and beef products, a substantial part of which is sold and shipped in interstate commerce.

Earl F. Halverson, regional director of the department's wage and hour and public contracts division, said an investigator disclosed that the firm had violated the minimum wage, overtime and record-keeping provisions of the law since April 1962.

The Tarpoffs said the Labor Department agents in Chicago told them "it was nothing to worry about." They said a time clock will be installed.

City Asks For Bell Ringing On July 4th

Granite City council members voted Monday night to urge Granite City churches, schools and businesses with bells or chimes to sound them on July 4 at 1 p.m. to commemorate the 187th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

The bell-ringing ceremony has been proclaimed throughout the state by Gov. Otto Kerners, and his proclamation was read to the council by Alderwoman Mrs. Gabrielle Betinac.

Locally, the idea of bell ringing at 1 p.m. tomorrow — to coincide with the ringing of Liberty Bell at Independence Hall in Philadelphia — was started by the congregation of Concordia Lutheran Church.

Police Give Anti-Burglar Tips For Vacation-Goers

Quad-City area police chiefs today stressed the need for homeowners to take precautions to prevent burglaries especially during the summer vacation months.

"The chiefs pointed out that burglary prevention should be a year-round job, but special attention is needed in the summer because of the increased number of people who are away from their homes more frequently. More people, it is noted, go off without a second thought of taking a few simple precautions to safeguard their property."

People can help the police departments by taking a few simple steps to discourage burglars, the chiefs added.

Burglar's Habits

Afternoons are a good time for the burglar to work, they added. Many women go out to visit, attend meetings or shopping and the housebreaker can work undisturbed.

The chiefs' advice is — always lock your doors when going out, even if you're gone for only a minute.

Night time, however, is still preferred by most burglars and nationwide statistics show about 90% of all residential burglaries occur during the evening hours.

Burglary, they explained, is a crime of stealth and chances of an intruder being seen or heard then are usually much less. It's easier for the prowler to tell whether anyone is home during evening hours.

Light Is Burglar's Enemy

Light is the burglar's worst enemy, the chiefs emphasized. Very few will risk entering if a lamp or two are left burning when a family leaves. The burglar knows that he can always find a dark house down the street.

The chiefs suggest an automatic timer may be connected to a lamp in a home, and it will go on at a proper time and to off at the time set, creating the appearance that someone is at home.

Locks will slow down any burglar, the police officials stated. Most homes have secure locks on front doors, but often flimsy devices that can be opened with a hair-pin or skeleton key are on the rear and basement entrances.

Substantial pottumbler cylinder locks should be installed on all outside entrances. "Don't protect your $30,000 home with a $1

Advice To Vacationers

At vacation time, it is wise to advise the police department as to how long you expect to be away. Most departments keep a file on empty homes and will check them, periodically every day.

The chiefs' suggestion list also includes notification of dairies, cleaners and newspaper deliverers to halt deliveries during a vacation period. A neighbor may gather the mail, because a bulging mail box is an indication the family is away. Arrangements also may be made with a neighbor to look after the property — sweep the sidewalk and pick up any circulars that might be left on the porch.

The advice also mentions — "Don't close those curtains or blinds completely. Close blinds keep the sun out, but also make an effective screen for burglars. Keep valuables and securities in a safety deposit box."

One of the most entertaining and instructive speeches ever heard by the Granite City Rotary club was the report given at the last meeting by District Governor Dr. Philip M. Dale.

Dr. Dale had returned from San Francisco Friday morning, having been gone since June 8. He went on the Rotary Express train, having Mrs. Dale and her sister in his party. They went to the Rotary school in Del Monte, Calif., and after that to the international convention at San Francisco. They returned by way of Seattle.

Dr. Dale had prepared and arranged his report with the result that it was logical and witty. He was given extra time and the meeting ran half an hour over time, but the members listened with rapt attention, cheered, applauded and finally called for an encore.

The campaign to raise $5000 for the benefit of St. Elizabeth's Hospital has nearly reached the halfway mark and Chairman Roy Massey said today that the rest will be subscribed with less effort on the part of the solicitors.

At a reorganization meeting of the Granite City public library board Friday night, R. W. Warner was re-elected as president without opposition. The other officers, Byron Haver, vice-president, and Mrs. Olive Belle Stalling, secretary, were also re-elected unanimously.

Mr. and Mrs. Evan Griffith and family of Lowell, Minn., returned Saturday from a vacation trip which took them to Anderson, Ind.; Sandusky, Ohio; Warren, Ohio; Presque Isle, Pa.; Watkins Glen and Niagara Falls, N. Y.; Detroit and Canada. They were away ten days.

The members of the Thirty-third club of the Sacred Heart Church enjoyed a very pleasant Falling Springs Thursday evening.

The following young people were in the party: Misses Betty Lakatos, Helen Muky, Vivian Marsh, Dorothy Pieper, May Hoel, Elva, Gordon, Ellen Schluter, Virginia LaBarbe, Helen Walther, John Kosak, John Carmody, Rita Kunkin, Joseph Schneider, Tony Pasche, Harry Ruby, Donald Portell and Nick Pettilio.

Chaperoning the group were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Edmonds, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Edmonds, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell, and accordion music was furnished during the evening by Nick Pettilio.

Marion Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Wilson of State street, is enrolled at Texas School of Technology, Lubbock, Tex., for the summer term.

The thirteenth birthday of Glenn Tomson Jr. was celebrated when his mother, Mrs. Joe Ritz, entertained in honor of the occasion with a party at his home. Fifty guests were present.

Guests included Mrs. Mary Jane Hammer, Frances Barker, Charles Sammons and Earl Stark. After the party a luncheon was served at a large table set with candles and centered by a prettily tied birthday cake.

Mrs. Charles Hildinger and Mrs. Dan Boyle, leaders of the club, with 17 members and their mothers, enjoyed an outing at Monks Mound State Park on Thursday.

The day was spent at games, and a winner roast and marshmallow roast were held.

Farmers in the surrounding community are being paid 66 to 71½ cents a bushel in carload lots for wheat they are selling to the U.S. Grain Commission. It was learned today from a representative of the commission firm.

He said that wheat is fairly good, and estimated the average yield at 23 to 25 bushels per acre. However, farmers indicated to him that the total wheat brood was not to be equal to last season's.

David John, clerk at the local office of the Illinois-Iowa Power Co., was honored this week by the Calumet and Council of Boy Scouts, which presented him with a much-coveted certificate showing him to be a veteran in the organization with a record of having registered each and every year for 20 consecutive years.

Only about five other scouts in the Tri-Cities have been presented with similar fittings, and he is proud of the new credentials, which are made up in neat folder form enclosed in a leather pocket card case.

Mr. Daniel G. Caris, with his sister, Miss Lorraine, and a friend, Lawrence Meier of St. Louis, are at home again following an extensive vacation tour by motor through the west. Their itinerary included Chicago, Caverno, El Paso, Tex., Mexico, Denver, Pike's Peak, Salt Lake City, Yellowstone Park, the Big Horn, the South Dakota, Mount Rushmore, N. D. They returned yesterday.

These young men have been selected from Granite City to attend the C.M.T. camp at Jefferson City, Mo., this year. Harold W. Adams, Allen D. Charbonnet, Robert E. Colok, Roland Kennedy Jr., John W. Lancaster, John H. Lapecomb, D. E. Pendleton, Thomas G. Puhse, Clarence Warfield Jr., Donald A. Stack, and the summer term.

she and some of the others voted against the mayor's contention expenses. I agree it's good to send our mayor on these conventions, but I don't like things in our city that were done or changed and caused an increase in the taxes. I don't like the convention expenses. Let's stop the spending down.

I don't want to stay in our city, not to be run out by ever rising taxes. Think of the people who are being driven out of our small towns.

Was there a Havana convention? If there was, I don't think I say thanks to the others who voted against this added tax on the taxpayers.

I believe they had the taxpayers in mind when they voted this down. Many others feel as I do. Keep up the idea of saving the tax dollars.

COUNCIL HAS RIGHT TO DISAGREE WITH MAYOR

To the Editor:

In reply to a statement by a city representative in which I feel was a wasted speech—referring to the sidewalk who are trying to be bought—there is also the taxpayers of Granite City. I see no discrepancy in that way of thinking or in the way that I shall always be my privilege.

As for showing the mayor he was a "bad boy" who was not the way to give the mayor a good spanking? I think there is a little more to it than that.

When I was a boy, I had many spankings from my dad, but his spanking was to teach me the right way, not the wrong way. To this day, I hold the utmost respect for what he taught me. Being honest with ourselves and with the people that I represent in my ward and city is all I shall ever ask for.

Another statement, made at the council meeting was, "The mayor represents the majority of the people." Also, some had "disgraced" the government of the city.

We have a mayor, but the council can veto or vote on issues brought before it. That is also done in your state and federal government. As for disgracing the government of Granite City, all I can say is that I don't claim to be a bad boy.

From the time I first voted until the present time, I have used my own judgment in voting, which is the greatest privilege that is given a person in this country of ours.

As for England paying more regard to its statesmen than in this country, you can be as stupid as "all get out" and get elected. I noticed that after listening at the meetings.

ALDERMEN RIGHT IN NOT PAYING FOR CONVENTION

To the Editor:

I agree with many in the Seventh Ward and city that Mrs. Betine is a credit to our council. She has always tried to be in the interest of the people. I hope she continues, which we all believe she will.

I don't think she was thinking about the city and people when

Newlyweds, Both GC Teachers, Now At Home

Mr. and Mrs. David Lee Kirchner, who were married Saturday, have returned this week from a short honeymoon trip and will reside in the Crescent Mobile Homes Park in Collinsville.

The ceremony took place at 3:30 p.m. at Grace Lutheran Church with the Rev. A. H. Abbinghoff officiating at the double-ring ceremony. A reception followed at the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride, the former Carolyn Lou Frame, wore a gown of Alecon lace and white silk organza taffeta. The bodice, made on princess lines, featured a deep scalloped neckline sprinkled with sequins. The sleeves were long and the front panels of the princess skirt had matching lace motifs. The puffed back flowed into a chapel train. A veil of silk illusion was caught to the bride's hair with a queen's crown of pearls, crystals and tear drops. The only ornament worn was a heart pendant necklace, the bridegroom's gift. The bride's bouquet was composed of white carnations, stephanotis and pale pink cymbidium orchids.

The maid of honor, Miss Kathy Locke, a sorority sister of the bride, wore a dress of rose nylon satin over taffeta styled with a fitted bodice, a scoop neckline and cap sleeves. A headpiece and short veil matched the dress. The bridesmaids, Miss Martha Potter, and Miss Mary Ann Kirchner, the bridegroom's sister, were similarly attired in petal pink with matching roses and short veils in their hair.

A little flower girl, Karen Sue Griffin, was dressed in pastel pink nylon. Eric Kirchner, nephew of the bridegroom, carried the rings.

Gwen Kirchner was his brother's best man, and Thomas Williams, Michael Mullen, Norman Meyer Jr. and Patrick Early served as groomsmen and ushers.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford W. Frame of Elkhart, Ind. Mr. Kirchner's parents are Oliver Kirchner, 3816 Nameoki road, and Mrs. Grace Elizabeth Kirchner, 1523 Ponton road.

Davis Renames Six To Library Board

Resignment of six members of the Granite City public library board of trustees, made by Mayor Davis, was confirmed Monday night by council members.

Renamed for three year terms to expire July 1, 1966, were Mrs.

Vina Rode, City Judge Fred P. Schuman and Henry George. Also confirmed were the reappointments for three trustees whose terms are to expire July 1, 1965. Mayor Davis explained their reappointments were overlooked last year due to his illness.

They are Gerald Walters, Alderwoman Mrs. Gabrielle Bettenc and George E. Filcoff.

Given the choice of white clover or alfalfa in the same field, the honeybees will choose clover. Alfalfa pollen is harder to reach.

One reason women live longer than men: They are more successful in keeping their weight down, according to insurance studies.

Wallace Reports Firing at Man In Self-Defense

Admitting that he shot an Alton man in Madison June 30, Guy Ronnie Wallace, 23, of 2829 Willow avenue was bound over to the county grand jury Monday afternoon on a charge of aggravated battery. He was released on $2500 property bond at 7:25 p.m. Monday.

Wallace, who waived a preliminary hearing before Police Magistrate John Bridick, gave self-defense as his reason for firing at William Darksin, 33, after a minor auto accident on Madison avenue at Seventh street.

He said Darksin appeared to be reaching toward a pocket of his clothing as if to obtain a weapon.

Unemployed, Wallace has a record of arrests for peace disturbance.

A patient at the Alton Memorial Hospital, Darksin is making satisfactory progress and is expected to survive. The bullet entered his left cheek and came out through the back of the neck.

Material Witness

Madison police booked two others as material witnesses, each being released Monday afternoon on a $1000 property bond. They are Wallace's brother, Shelby Wallace, 25, also of 2829 Willow, and Robert Baker, 33, of 2717 Lincoln avenue.

"FIRST CAR OVER" the sign on the side of this old Illinois Traction Limited streetcar reads. Car's crossing of the new (in 1910) McKinley bridge inaugurated express street car service between Granite City and points north as far as Peoria. Eighteen cars a day, including a sleeper, made the trip north.

AIR-CONDITIONING was unheard of in 1910 when these residents of the old National Hotel on 18th street near Delmar avenue stood outside for a breath of fresh air. The National adjoined the Henson building (extreme right). Barber shop was located on ground floor of hotel, had served earlier as a post office.

GAS LIGHTS dotted the downtown street corners of Granite City when this photo was taken 50 years ago. Corner location at Niedringhaus and Delmar avenues was occupied by the Granite City Music House, operated by J. D. Brickley. Location now houses Graham's Book Store. Extending to the right along brick-paved Niedringhaus are tracks of the old McKinley car line.

Other officers named were Dick McCulla, junior vice-commander; Joseph Gottfried, finance officer; Don Short, sergeant-at-arms, and Darrell Edwards, historian. Elected to the executive board were the past commander, Harold Summers, and Fred McColligan and Burt Harris.

Around The 4th Of July

JOHN W. ALLEN
Southern Illinois University
Whatever ones special interest may be, the first week in July should offer a day to be observed. Particularly do the anniversaries of several events considered important in American history come in early July, a number on the fourth.

The first one in mind marks the founding of Providence, Rhode Island by Roger Williams on July 4, 1639. Next is the day in early July when Washington surrendered Fort Mifflin to the French during the French and Indian Wars. Then came the day, 20 years later, when he assumed command of the Continental Army under an elm tree at Boston.

It was on July 2, 1776 that the Continental Congress adopted Richard Henry Lee's resolution that resulted in the passage of the Declaration of Independence two days later, thus making July 4 the birth date of a new nation. The declaration approved was to a great extent the work of Thomas Jefferson and had John Adams as its staunch and able advocate.

On July 4, 1826, both author and advocate died, Adams saying, "Thomas Jefferson still survives," and Jefferson reported as murmuring, "This is the fourth of July." Evidently each was thinking backward to another day a half-century before.

July 4th Happenings
Within a very few years after 1776, people began to celebrate the fourth as a patriotic holiday, a practice that became practically universal. In the ensuing years other events came to be associated with the day. Work on the Erie Canal was begun on July 4, 1817. Stephen Collins Foster, composer of many cherished songs, was born this day, 1826. The cornerstone of the Bunker Hill monument was laid in 1849 and the Republican party came into being in 1854.

Then there was the fourth of July 1919 when, having successfully "smuggled" himself into Paris the writer saw three marshals of France ride down Champs Elysees in our parade. Then he went to see a fellow marine, Gene Tunney, win the boxing championship of the world. Perhaps the most significant of all later fourths came in 1863 in the midst of the Civil War and 87 years after the establishing one. It was on this day that Robert E. Lee's acknowledgment of defeat of the Confederate army, but still fighting in a desultory manner with an almost equally exhausted Union army, began his slow retreat to Richmond.

The high tide of the Confederacy had passed.

Vicksburg Surrender
On that same day July 4, 1863 another great military defeat came to the South. General John C. Pemberton surrendered the key military post of Vicksburg to General Grant and ended the hopes of the Confederacy in the Mississippi valley. No longer could they have ready access to the food and other supplies that the north beyond the Mississippi could furnish.

The significance of these two defeats, the one at Gettysburg and the other at Vicksburg can hardly be stated better than by quoting portions from a diary kept by Gen. Josiah Gorgas, an able southern leader.

"One brief month ago we were apparently on the road to success. . . All looked bright. Now the picture is as gloomy as it was bright then. Lee failed at Gettysburg. Vicksburg and Port Hudson . . . surrendered 35,000 men and 45,000 arms. . . It seems incredible. . . Yesterday we rode on the pinnacle of success. Today . . . the Confederacy totters to its destruction."

Gorgas' appraisal was correct. Gettysburg and Vicksburg, the capture of Vicksburg, No state contributed more to the success of the campaign. Three men who played prominent parts had come from Illinois: Grant from Galena, Logan from Jackson County and McClelland from Shawneetown. Many thousands of men—to be more exact—30,312, went from Illinois to press the siege that almost literally starved the Confederates into submission.

An Illinois monument, the largest on the battlefield, memorializes the soldiers from this state. It is modeled after the Roman Pantheon and strange as it may seem, carries no carving of device to symbolize war. There are, however, many tablets and plaques, enough to carry the names of all Illinois men known to have fought there.

With each passing year these listings tend more and more to associated with a great collection of this state. It is modeled after the Roman Pantheon and strange as it may seem, carries no carving of device to symbolize war. There are, however, many tablets and plaques, enough to carry the names of all Illinois men known to have fought there.

City Studying Bids For Truck, Other Proposals
Two bids for a new vehicle for the city humane officer were opened during Monday night's session of the Granite City council and were referred to a committee for recommendation at next week's special council session.

The city called for bids for either a station wagon or a half-ton truck.

Brewer Motor Co. submitted bids of $1900 for a station wagon and $1500 for a half-ton truck while Matthews Chevrolet Co. submitted a bid of $1650 for a half-ton truck.

Alderman Samuel Whitmer, chairman of the committee, said all bids figures were "out of the city" with the trade-in of the old pickup truck already decided.

He said the present truck is out of service.

Air-Conditioner Bids Sought
Also to be carried over to next Monday's special budget session will be bids for an air-conditioning unit for the office of the clerk of the city court to replace a worn-out model.

Alderman Casmer Skubish said only one bid was received yesterday, and he would re-advertise for additional bids. "I'm sure we can get more," he added.

Mayor Davis cautioned the council not to delay the purchase too long "for hot weather will be over."

"Steps To Be Repaired"
Skubish, who is chairman of the City Hall committee, said additional bids will be sought for repairs to the outside main entrance steps to the city hall building. "We received two bids, but I'm not going to open them now," Skubish told the council.

A lone bid to provide shelving for the city court law library was received from Atlas Sales Co., 1726 Delmar avenue, with a figure of $288 for 11 units. The council voted for the purchase, since the shelves match those presently in the library.

A request for a street light to be installed in a utility easement at 2712 Saratoga avenue was submitted by Skubish and was referred to the Light committee for study.

Sen. Simon Praises Work Of Madison County Legislators

State Senator Paul Simon today issued a statement praising the work of all three Madison County members of the House of Representatives. Simon said: "It's sometimes discouraging working in Springfield, wondering whether anyone appreciates your efforts, and the public should know that all three House members from Madison County did outstanding work, and were diligent in their efforts."

"Rep. Lloyd 'Curly' Harris handled Gov. Keener's appropriation program in the House. Taking the responsibility for carrying through appropriations totaling three and one-half billion dollars is no small task."

"Rep. Leland Kennedy was regular in committee attendance and took the responsibilities assigned to him by his colleagues seriously. Some of the more controversial pieces of legislation during the session were sponsored or handled by him. He did not hesitate to stand up for what he believed was right."

"Rep. Ralph Smith was assigned one of the chief roles of responsibility in the House, that of majority whip. This made him frequently an influential House member — as well as a busy member."

"I am issuing this statement without consultation with any of the three gentlemen."

"I would not presume to take position in the Republican primary, in which I suppose Rep. Smith will seek re-election, but on the basis of their work in the past session I will support Representatives Harris and Kennedy in the Democratic primary, should they seek re-election. Their performance merits such support."

LARGE TENT which was erected for Madison's Fourth of July celebration on the Third street lot blew down on about 50 youths who had taken shelter when the heavy rains washed out ball games. The tent was torn. John Onesky, chief umpire and grounds keeper, and Sam Dymas, an umpire, held part of the tent up while the rains continued. Showing the damage here are, from left, Onesky, Jack Miller, Robert Petrosky, Dymas, James Dittman and Jerry Bartlett.

LARGE TREE was blown down by strong, high winds onto the roof of the home of Louis L. Link, 1739 Second street, Madison, during the height of yesterday's electrical storm. Several windows were broken at the rear of the house.

3 SAVINGS BONDS BOUGHT IN 1943 AND HOW THEY GREW

	$25	$50	$100
Cost in May 1943	18.75	37.50	75.00
Value in May 1953	25.00	50.00	100.00
Value in May 1963	34.26	68.52	137.04
Value in May 1973	49.68	99.36	198.72

As you can see by these three examples, Savings Bonds don't necessarily stop growing when they mature. They go right on building in value as you hold them.

This means that those Bonds you tucked away and forgot about are still earning for you at a good clip. (Every E Bond ever purchased and not cashed is still earning for its owner.)

Of course, your Savings Bonds work hard in another important way. As you build your own financial strength—you build the strength of our nation.

Millions of American families think this is a pretty good assignment for their money... so much so that they've made U.S. Savings Bonds the most widely held security in the world.

Start buying U.S. Savings Bonds now where you bank or work, and see if you don't feel pretty good about it, too.

Quick facts about U.S. Savings Bonds

- You get $4 for every $3 at maturity • You can get your money anytime

Short, Bieniecki Obtain US Patent For Invention

Olivier G. Short, 3404 Franklin avenue, and Henry S. Bieniecki, 2616 State street, have been awarded a U. S. patent for an invention entitled "railway car truck."

The patent, No. 3,092,042, has been assigned to General Steel Industries where Short is employed as an engineer. Bieniecki formerly was an engineer at the local GSI plant but now is employed at McDonnell Aircraft Co.

A railway car truck includes wheels, axles, a framing supported on the axles, and a bolster or crossbeam that is supported at its center on the framing to swivel about a vertical axis.

The bolster carries springs at its ends for supporting the car underframe directly, and it is desirable that both an air spring and coil spring be used at each end to support the car body.

The coil springs support the light or empty load of the car body and serve also as the sole support of the car in the event of failure of the air springs.

The air springs provide the additional support required for varying pay loads, and their height and stiffness are regulated in response to changes in such loads.

Short and Bieniecki have devised a novel and improved railway car truck which affords numerous advantages. It is claimed. The construction of their invention is such that the air and coil springs are arranged in the best possible manner from the standpoint of efficiency in operation and ease of maintenance.

The invention permits the use of a lighter spring supporting structure than has been possible with any other arrangement of the springs. In addition, the air spring is located so that it is always easily accessible for inspection and maintenance, and the assembly is such that the width of the bolster is minimized, and its swiveling action relative to the supporting track frame is facilitated.

In other words, as an important feature of the invention, each air spring is located outwardly of its associated coil spring, which lends to the advantages.

The construction is such that lateral shocks applied to the truck by track irregularities are cushioned, and vertical oscillations of the springs are damped or absorbed by dampers. Also, the admittance of compressed air to, and its removal from, the air springs is regulated automatically by a novel valve assembly in accordance with the load being supported.

NEW HOME of the Triangle Heating and Air Conditioning Co. under construction at the corner of U.S. By-pass 66 and Voight place in Mitchell. The building is 75 feet by 100 feet and has a facing of special Texas black brick.

Free-Record Still Photographer Co-owner, Marion L. Morris said the building will house the company's hydronics division, which includes heating, ventilating and air conditioning. The building is scheduled to be completed in 30 days.

The board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Patricia Kanowski, Venice kindergarten teacher for the last three years, whose husband has accepted a teaching position in Miami, Fla.

Hired was Mrs. Helen Purkapple, 1824 Second street, Madison, as Venice fourth grade teacher. She received a bachelor of science degree in elementary education this year at Southwestern Illinois University.

Four Vacancies
Pier reported that four vacancies remain on the faculty. They include teachers for the kindergarten, third grade and EMH classes and a band instructor.

The board heard a report that the Barrett Roofing Co., which had insured the roof of Lincoln school 10 years ago, would make repairs at a cost of $900 of the costs. A 20-year guarantee also was offered. A further report is to be given at the July 15 meeting.

The superintendent also reported that plaster is falling from the ceiling of a high school classroom and may be caused by termites or water-soaked, rot. Tests are to be made to determine the cause.

He told the board eight shatterproof glass panels will be installed on two rear doors of the Venice school, now boarded up with plywood.

The board accepted a bid of $1950 from Graham's Book Store for athletic equipment. Superintendent's requisitions of $1719 for textbooks, $177 for supplies, and $180 for the library and $47 for equipment were approved.

Pier reported that Don Phillips, school treasurer, is a patient at St. Elizabeth's Hospital with a kidney ailment.

Eagle Park Benefit Program Nets $260

Over $260 was received by the Eagle Park Improvement Association at its water deposit fund-raising program held at the Civic Center in Brooklyn, it was announced this week by Cleveland Johnson, president of the association.

The money will be added to the $16,500 already collected to help finance the extension of water lines of the East St. Louis and Interurban Water Co. into the Eagle Park area.

Johnson again urged Eagle Park residents, who have not yet done so, to deposit their $108 with the First National Bank in Madison. Last week the water company extended the association's deadline, to raise the necessary $23,885 deposit, to July 19.

The association president added that a special public meeting for Eagle Park residents will be held Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in the Church of God, 104 Hill street, in an attempt to determine a way to successfully close the water deposit campaign before the July 19 deadline.

Johnson also said that a St. Louis man recently donated $22 to the water fund.

Farm Column

By IRUMAN V. MAY
Madison County Farm Advisor

The most common topic of conversation during the wheat harvest of the past week has been the unexpected high yields. A good crop of wheat was anticipated, but it appears now that a new high average yield record for Madison county may be set. The previous highest average was 38 bushels per acre in 1956.

A number of farmers have reported yields above 60 bushels and crops in the 40 and 50 bushel range are common. Among the factors causing the large crop are new improved varieties and better seed, the increased use of fertilizers, better seedbed preparation, less damage than usual by diseases and insects and generally favorable weather despite the cold winter, late spring freezes and heavy rains, strong winds and hail just before harvest. Probably the most favorable aspect of the weather was the rather constant mild weather during the winter without much freezing and thawing that cause the wheat plants to hold the soil and the ground and winter-kill more easily.

Monson, a comparatively new soft variety from Indiana seeded here for the first time in the fall of 1959, continued to be outstanding in yield. In the variety test plot grown by Jim Winet of Saline township in cooperation with the County Agricultural Extension Service, harvested last week, it yielded at the rate of 74.3 bushels per acre.

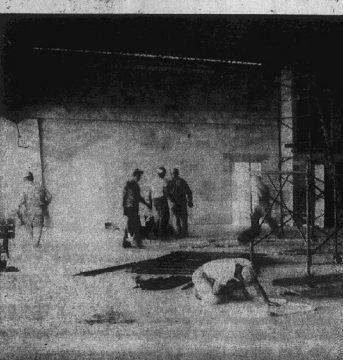

Second in the test plot was Knox 62, a new strain of the well-known Knox variety developed for resistance to loose smut and Hessian fly. It made 66 bu. per acre. Third was Ottawa, a new hard wheat, with 65.3 bu. Regular Knox and Ponca, a hard wheat, were fourth with 62 bu.

Other results in the test were Vermilion 61.6 bu., Redcoat and Pawnee 61, Omaha 68.3, Triumph 57.6 and Tuscara 54.3 bu. The five soft wheat varieties averaged 59.7.

The consistent high yields of the Monson variety, along with its stiff straw and early maturity, will undoubtedly cause more farmers to seed it this fall. It and Vermilion are the most generally grown soft wheats being grown in the county, with Pawnee the most common hard wheat. If Ottawa ranks high in other tests in this area, it will likely increase.

Started pullets have become popular since specialization has taken over in the egg business. Lack of time and facilities have caused many farmers to stop raising replacements. Last year two million started pullets were placed in the state, and three million are expected this year. This trend, however, has caused certain problems. Among them are the ability to obtain top-quality pullets, get them at the farm when needed, and do it with as little mismanagement as possible. To get the best birds, deal with a hatcheryman who has a reputation for raising top-quality pullets. Producers can't afford to deal with men who outsource to decrease cost and thus produce inferior birds. Place an order for birds well in advance of need. This will help the grower set up his program to raise the required birds. Certain producers are planning their replacements five years in advance, but most of them find six to eight months sufficient. To prevent misunderstandings and designate responsibilities when buying pullets, get all the details in writing. Prices for started pullets vary, but most hatcherymen are selling 20-week-old pullets for $1.70 to $2.10 each. Although price is important, don't sacrifice quality for price. Disinfect the laying house at least two weeks before moving new pullets in. Since transporting pullets puts a great stress on them, every precaution should be taken to make the transition as easy as possible. With specialization becoming popular, producers should begin thinking about started pullets as an alternative to raising their own.

Over-drive markets. With reduced competition among the lamb feeder must be quality minded in his production. Production testing, selection and breeding along with research should help produce lambs that retain quality in heavier carcasses and grow faster and more economically. Producers might set up goals they want to attain and work them out. Three-inch loin eye, heavier carcasses that retain quality without being over-finished, little external fat and faster production are a few ideal goals that might be set up. Studies have found that satisfactory charges for a 150-pound lamb are essentially the same as charges for a 90-pound lamb. It appears that other evidence is also against smaller lambs. However, don't sacrifice quality for weight.

A twilight meeting for horse-racing and sweetcorn growers will be held the evening of July 11 at 6:30 p.m. at the variety test plots on the farm of Wm. Bruns and Son in Nameoki township. Different varieties and methods of horse-racing disease control will be demonstrated, with specialists of the University of Illinois on the program. The Bruns farm is on Sand Prairie road between Route 111 and Cahokia Mounds. All persons interested in horse-racing and sweetcorn are invited.

The ten highest milk-producing herds in the Madison County Dairy Herd Improvement Association for the last month of testing were owned by Waldo Keilbach, W. Autrey, J. C. Becker and Son, Normann Henke, Wilbur Federer, Harold Bauman and Son, Leland Steiner, Wilbert Wells, Elmer Klenke, Vernon Warnecke and Jim Deane.

Highest wheat yield reported to date was a field of six acres of Monson wheat that made 88 bu. per acre, grown by Robert Marinko of Lee township. There is no such thing as artificial crop yields, of course, but this just might be the largest wheat yield ever produced in Madison county on a field large enough to be significant. It certainly is a lot of wheat. The field was well-fertilized.

The wheat harvest in this area is just about finished. Weather last week was ideal for combining, also for haying, straw baling, cultivating and other field operations. Corn and soybean conditions are above average on most farms, but timely rains are necessary. Some farmers are cutting alfalfa the second time. So far there have been very few reports of insect damage, but growing crops should be watched closely, especially for grasshoppers.

torior brick work and roof decking have been completed by the general contractor, the J. E. Williams Co., which estimates the building is 60% finished.

Proper Use Of Weapons Explained To Rotarians

An explanation of the development of the Granite City pistol team and the proper use of firearms for sport and competition was given yesterday afternoon to the 38 Rotarians who attended the weekly Granite City Rotary Club luncheon meeting at the YMCA.

Joseph Nemeth, a member of the Granite City police department and the department's pistol team, explained how the team was founded and discussed its rapid development and recent success in competitive meets. The police officer also showed the types of pistols used in competition and demonstrated their proper use.

During the meeting it also was announced that members who have not yet sold their tickets for the club's August horse show should do so in the immediate future. The horse show is an annual club event and will be held this year on Sunday, Aug. 25 at 1 p.m. at the Tri-City Speedway in Milledgeville. Tickets are on sale and may be purchased from any Rotary Club member.
